Pressrelease:

2 players sharing the lead after day 1 at Swedish Invitational

It was a tough day at Bokskogen, it started with sun and 28-30 degrees.
In the middle a heavy rain came in for 15 minutes and made it tough for all players.

The Young Swede Gustav Henningsson and the defending Champion Daniel Slabbert of South Africa share the lead, both came in at +2.

Gustav played his best round ever and was very happy when he signed his scorecard, he was early in the clubhouse and has looked how good his score was all afternoon.

The former Champion Manuel De Los Santos from France are close behind at +4.

In the women, Caroline Larsson from Sweden is in the lead at +4, but Mette Wegge-Lynggaard are close behind at +7.

The second round will start at 08:00 tomorrow, and the leader flights tee off between 10:20 – 10:40.

Swedish Invitational Golf Challenge - A world class competition hosted in "proud" cooperation between FIFH Malmö & Bokskogen GC.
